

EXPLORE AND ENGAGE!

Discover hidden gems.

Design your own route.

Visit our website at www.riverandrailartventure.ca

Come meet the Makers
Where we work, live and play

OUTLOOK

Art Gallery of Outlook This year's amazing collection of fabric art will show under the title, "Slip Stitch". The Art Gallery of Outlook will be filled with the colourful work of skilled artisans from the area. Be sure to stop, look and chat to pick up some ideas at this venue located in the Town Hall Building at 400 Saskatchewan Ave.

zannedh@gmail.com • 306 867-7505

A Single Strand offers a variety of classes in fibre arts as well as supplying hand-dyed alpaca yarn, felting kits and inspiration. Discover the wide variety of handmade items in the store. Cathy Merkley and Tosha Sparks will warmly welcome you at 115A Saskatchewan Avenue East in Outlook.

tnc.barn@gmail.com • 306-867-8020.

Bill Frerichs soaked in some West Coast inspiration this past winter, adding watercolors to his skill set. He is always open to share his experiences and his paintings with visitors. Take a good look at the canvases he offers, and you'll find fine acrylic artwork to grace your home. This successful artist invites you to his home at 317 Simpson Street.

bandefrerichs@gmail.com • 306-348-2363

Shann Brecht Artist Shannon's artistic spirit flourishes in many different mediums, from watercolor, acrylic, encaustic and oil, to hand crafting dreamcatchers. Nothing brings Shannon more joy than expressing her emotions through her craft. She will be the showcase artist at the Outlook and District Heritage Museum, 100 Railway Avenue.

shannbrechtartist@gmail.com • 306-261-8039

VILLAGE OF BRODERICK
VILLAGE OF TUGASKE

Eli Dingle Stone Carving and Photography continues to raise the bar with his beautiful sculptures in chlorite, soapstone, and white alabaster. Eli also captures amazing night skies and star trails in photographs that are printed on aluminum. Come see what else he offers at 400 Saskatchewan Avenue West in the Town of Outlook complex.

elginde@yahoo.ca • 306-856-3084

Heritage Artisans, a new group with some familiar faces this year, features woodcrafts, embroidery, fancy baking, photography, watercolor paintings, and succulents. Each of these artisans have taken their work to a polished level, offering variety in one location. Join them at the Outlook and District Heritage Centre, 420 Railway Avenue, Outlook, just west of the vet clinic.

eanddjensen@sasktel.net • 306 867-3618

Janet Akre Art welcomes you to the Akre Acreage just outside of Outlook at 925 McKenzie Street North. Stop in to see her acrylic artwork including landscapes from all seasons. Janet also brings new life to old barnwood with birds, animals, trees and barns! Add a touch of colour to your home with her acrylic pours. Ask her about commissioning your favorite spot.

bjakre@hotmail.com • 306-867-7054

JuliesBW Art has been very busy since last June with requests for pet portraits and other country-related scenes in her unique acrylic painting style. Julie immerses herself in the creative process but is always open to talk about what inspires her. Find Julie at 102 Saskatchewan Avenue in Jacq'y Jaye's Boutique and Espresso Bar. You'll leave refreshed and inspired!

juliesbwart@gmail.com • 306-860-7338

OUTLOOK AND DISTRICT HERITAGE MUSEUM AND GALLERY

Kim Olson finds her creative outlet in fabric, whether quilting or sewing the myriad designs she crafts. Looking for a handbag and quilt or advice, Kim has it all at 420 Saskatchewan Avenue East, at the back of the Broderick Garden Centre lot in Outlook.

broderickgardens@sasktel.net • 306-867-7631

Willie's Painting and Pyrography will wow you with the intricate layers of woodburning that go into each of her creations. Willie brings all the hours of skill and experience from 17 years of practice to each piece. And it shows! Enjoy the other surprises, including dreamcatchers, found in her studio/garage and meet this very interesting artist at 24 Carter Crescent in Outlook.

waschachtel@yahoo.com • 306-860-8180

Woven and Braided New this year, Carol and Lloyd Simonson will share their skills with you. at 322 Semple Street, through the gate, and into the back yard to the "Loom Room". See loom, spinning wheel and friendship bracelet demonstrations. They will have woven products AND fresh pulla, a braided, Finnish bread.

carol.simonson@sasktel.net • 306-867-7364

BRODERICK AND RURAL

Honour Woodworks Janet Gross is the creative mastermind behind this whimsical art form using deconstructed old pianos. From taking apart the pianos to framing the scenes made from their parts, Janet does it all. She uses the ivory keys for miniature scenes in scrimshaw. Come see what's new this year! Find it through the gateway arch/sign just north of Highway 15, 2 and half miles east of the Highway 19 junction.

home.wbt@gmail.com • 306-860-8901

JACQ'Y JAYE'S BOUTIQUE AND ESPRESSO BAR

Birds of Prairie Nicolette Vanderschaaf is an very talented artist with a deep love for the prairies and its wildlife. She shares her watercolours with you at Wolf Willow Winery. The view, her paintings, and a glass of local wine are well worth the drive. Located 15km north of Outlook or west from Highway 219... watch for signs.

nicolettevanderschaaf@gmail.com • 306-856-3308

Husbandry Farms has really grown into a thriving berry orchard and vegetable farm over the past year. Ryan and Alicia are invested in supplying locally-sourced, nutritious food. Their friends will have some tasty treats available to try while you tour the 8-acre farm, just a little bit east on Highway 15, on Ordway Road. Haskap jam anyone?

alica@husbandryfarms.ca • 306-348-0348

Susan Robertson pottery Susan shares her knowledge and demonstrates the techniques that she uses as the only production hand building pottery studio in Saskatchewan. Explore the gift shop and take a memory home with you! 1 Kylie Place in Broderick.

susan@srobertsonpottery.com • 306-867-8011

Wolf Willow Winery A perfect stop on your Artventure! Enjoy river views and sample Saskatchewan craft food and beverages from our deck. A local potter and artist will also be on site. Explore the orchards, u-pick fruit & flowers, hiking trails and sandy beaches. Follow the signs. 15 km north of Outlook.

info@wolfwillowwinery.ca • 306-867-8314

TOWN OF DAVIDSON

Susan Robertson pottery

www.shop.srobertsonpottery.com
susan@srobertsonpottery.com
306-867-8011

STRONGFIELD

Makers Collective is looking forward to joining the excitement of the ArtVenture this year. These three talented Makers offer unique bird houses, artwork, ceramics and bath/body products in the beautifully restored 1909 Little Whyte Church at 110 Whyte Street. Watch for the large white horse statue on Highway 19 outside of Strongfield.

lacquerandlacespa@gmail.com • 306 291-7164

LOREBURN

Lu-Pins include the custom made, hand designed earrings of Lois Kurp. Recently she has added art cards of her paintings/photographs to her offering. You will be able to choose the perfect earrings and more from her display at 508 Main Street in Loreburn.

l.kurp@sasktel.net • 306-653-5830

Shirley Pringle will continue to bring her special brand of wit and talent to the Tour this year. Her acrylic paintings reflect her poetic perspective and her imaginative interpretation of life, human expression and personalities. All this at 516 Main Street in Loreburn.

suspenders45@gmail.com • 306-444-2609

LAKE DIEFENBAKER TOURISM

A sincere thanks to our 2023
Sponsors & Partners

Propelling Creative Entrepreneurship

ELBOW

Carmen Heinrichs Art Studio is like a walk in the prairie. Carmen incorporates natural materials in her woodburning, sculpting, painting and colored pencil work. You can also talk to this naturalist about trails and attractions in the area. Be sure to stop in at 235 Minto Street in Elbow.

heinrichscarmen@gmail.com • 306-854-4760

daisyanne Pottery Studio is a charming shop showcasing the creative work of Cindy Megaw just behind her home at 203 Aberdeen Street in Elbow. As a returning Maker, she is looking forward to meeting new people and continuing the conversations with returning visitors.

cindymegaw@gmail.com • 306-533-6803

Elbow Art Society has 9 artists who display their paintings in the upstairs gallery at the Elbow Town Office. Working in a variety of mediums, including watercolour, acrylic, oil, and mixed media, they support and challenge each other to further their practice. Follow the signs to join them at 201 Saskatchewan Avenue.

caking@sasktel.net • 306-796-7912

Georgia Horsley Pottery, new name but the same great welcome. Whether it is for utilitarian use or as home or garden decor, Georgia delights in creating colourful pieces that push the boundaries of artful expression in clay. You'll find her at 110 Grey Street in Elbow.

geoho@hotmail.com • 306-290-8590

Be a tourist in your own backyard

"Just Mud" Creations by Lorna Lorna Trew brings together clay, creativity and fun in her work. She has developed many friendships and techniques while 'just muddin' and is excited to be part of the Tour this year and to meet all the visitors. Come and get to know her alongside her mentor, Georgia, at 110 Grey Street.

lornatrew@hotmail.com • 306-854-4744

The Front Porch Gallery/Tom Wilson Fine Art Photography
An award-winning, published photographer, Tom captures local scenes and creates abstract works of art, making the simple spectacular. June complements his work with her lovely macrame. Visit them both at 109 Saskatchewan Street.

jaevans109@gmail.com • 306-533-6803

DAVIDSON

And Art Gallery located in a retired bank building in downtown Davidson, is also the home of resident artist, Gail Prpick whose trademark sweeping prairie skies draw the hearts of visitors. Gail curates a wide range of talented artists in a variety of mediums from across the province. This unique Gallery can be found at 112 Washington Avenue.

gailprpick@sasktel.net • 306-567-8267

CENTRAL BUTTE

Bill Philpott Art captures scenes of farm and ranch life on the western prairies as he has lived and recorded it from the past and the present. Bill's career has included notable achievements and large gallery exhibitions. Come see his current paintings at 53 3rd Avenue East in Central Butte.

philpottbill8@gmail.com • 639-923-7113

Wooden Creations
Keith Hampton once again brings his skill and mastery with all species of wood to the ArtVenture this year. Created in his own studio, his work graces homes all across the western provinces. Stop in for a chat and to see what Keith has for you at 681 Saskatchewan Street in Central Butte.

woodencreations55@yahoo.com • 306-796-7516

RIVERHURST

Don Rode shows his love of life through the warm expression in his acrylic paintings. There's a freshness that honours the familiar landscapes while helping us look at it differently. His home gallery is ready for you at 237 2nd Avenue West in Riverhurst.

donroserode@gmail.com • 306-796-7252

TUGASKE

Timeless Instruments
In addition to David Freeman's master workmanship as a luthier in all manner of stringed instruments, he also creates in silver and jade. Joining him this year is Andrea, a movement artist and musician, also from Tugaskie. Come for the art, stay for the experience at 341 Bison Avenue.

timelessgtrs@sasktel.net • 306-759-2042

B/A

A sincere thanks to our 2023
Sponsors & Partners

JANET AKRE ART

bjakre@hotmail.com
306-867-7054

Follow our self-guided tour

9 communities
27 venues
over 60 makers

2023
SATURDAY, JUNE 24
SUNDAY, JUNE 25
10 AM - 6 PM

CREATIVIY ABOUNDS IN WEST CENTRAL SASK