

Experience
the people, the place,
and the passion of
West Central Saskatchewan

2024
SATURDAY, JUNE 22
SUNDAY, JUNE 23
10 AM TO 6 PM

CREATIVIY ABOUNDS IN WEST CENTRAL SASK

TAKE TIME TO EXPLORE

Don't miss out on your chance to win!

Complete our survey as you exit one of our Maker's Venue during River and Rail ArtVenture and you'll be entered into a draw to win a great gift basket courtesy of Riverbend Coop, valued at $50.00. It's our way of saying thank you for your valuable feedback!

#RiverbendCoop #SurveyWinner

www.riverandrailartventure.ca

PAUSE AND INDULGE

OUTLOOK

Art Gallery of Outlook: The 2024 collection of fabric art will show under the title, "Raw Edge". The Art Gallery will be filled with an abundance of carefully crafted, colourful quilts, runners and all manner of amazing work from skilled artisans of the area. Whether you are looking for inspiration for your own art or for the work you might aspire to, this is the place to come.

Located in the Town Hall Building at 400 Saskatchewan Avenue.

zannedh@gmail.com
306-867-7505

A Single Strand offers a number of classes in fibre arts as well as supplying hand-dyed alpaca yarn, felting kits and inspiration. Discover the wide variety of handmade items as you visit with Cathy Merkley and Tosha Sparks. Their welcome will warm you and their knowledge of all aspects of fibre will inform and amaze you. For raw alpaca fibre to knitted items of all kinds, stop in at 115A Saskatchewan Avenue East in Outlook.

tnc.barn@gmail.com
306-867-8020

Shann Brecht Artist: Shann's artistic spirit flourishes in many mediums, from watercolour, acrylic, encaustic, and oils to handcrafting intricate dream catchers. Nothing brings her more joy than expressing her emotions through her art. Now in her second year with the Tour, Shann will be offering her new masterpieces at the Outlook and District Heritage Museum, 100 Railway Avenue East.

shannbrechtartist@gmail.com
306-261-8039

Heritage Artisans has added two more members this year, bringing the skills and artistry of 8 Makers together for you. Visitors can browse their offerings of photography, handmade soaps, watercolor painting, woodworking, succulents, fancy baking, published novels, embroidery/quilting and floral wreaths.

Join them for a cup of coffee and treats at the Outlook and District Heritage Centre, 420 Railway Avenue, Outlook, just west of the vet clinic.
heritageartisans24@gmail.com
306-860-7242

CREATE YOUR OWN MEMORIES

2 DAYS, 16 HOURS

Janet Akre Art is ready to welcome you to their acreage, just outside Outlook at 925 McKenzie Street North. Janet has been honing her acrylic painting skills over the winter and is ready to share new works with visitors. Janet also has wood slabs suitable for outdoor use with birds on them. Commission something unique to you and add it to your own art collection. While you are relaxing in her yard, perhaps you'll catch the special music as well. Stay a while!

bjakre@hotmail.com
306-867-7054

Julie SBW Art has continued to add fans to her unique and vibrant acrylic painting style. Julie has shared her talent with many, whether painting a pet, a vehicle or florals, to name just a few of her subjects. She immerses herself in the creative process but is always open to talk about what inspires her. This year, Julie will be set up at the Riverbend Co-Op Food Store, 218 Saskatchewan Avenue in Outlook.

juliesbwart@gmail.com
306-860-7338

Willie's Painting and Pyrography: Willie combines the intricate layers of woodburning that go into each of her creations with the whimsy of her sense of humour. She couples many the hours of skill with over 18 years of experience to produce each piece. There's something for everyone in the interesting items that she shares. Enjoy a chat with Willie as you join her in her studio/garage at 24 Carter Crescent in Outlook.

waschactel@yahoo.com
306-860-8180

Equinox Theatre group will be bringing their singing and dramatic talents for your enjoyment with two short plays from the youngest members as well as selections from their popular musicals by the more seasoned members. Equinox has been a long-standing part of the Arts community in Outlook, bringing loyal audiences back each year for one or two full length productions. This is a top-notch group with creative flair and attention to detail. You will find them in the Bounty Hall, next to the Outlook and District Heritage Museum at 100 Railway Avenue East.

theoutlook@sasktel.net
306-860-7700

Ray Keighley is a Cree/Metis artist who has family roots on the Sucker River Reserve north of Lac La Ronge, Saskatchewan, Treaty 6. Native content often gives an added creative energy to Keighley's art objects, reflecting the artist's balance between his ethnic origins, his life and work. Much of his artwork, carvings, murals, and paintings have been an opportunity to present and explore Truth and Reconciliation visually. You will find Ray at the Outlook and District Heritage Museum, 100 Railway Avenue East.

raykeighley@msn.com
306-260-9727

Lloyd Dubois brings a strong presence to the Tour this year as an accomplished Anishinabe artist from Treaty 4. He stylizes animals, plants, and other subjects to portray his understanding of ceremonial culture and relationships. Lloyd is currently a Sessional Lecturer III at the First Nations University of Canada: English Literature and Indigenous Studies. Don't miss meeting this interesting artist! He will be showing his paintings at the Outlook and District Heritage Museum, 100 Railway Avenue East.

dubois1@sasktel.net 306-596-0946

Living Books at the Library is a new venture this year, taking the lead from similar projects in Scandinavia. Visitors will have the opportunity to talk with interesting "books" that have been curated by librarian, Nancy Gorman and her crew. There will be a list of the people available with experiences, talents and skills that they would enjoy talking about with you. You can have a chat with as many "Books" as you like. The Outlook Regional Wheatland Library is located adjacent to the high school at 505 Franklin Street in Outlook. The hours: 10am-4pm both Saturday and Sunday.

outlook.library@wheatland.ca
306-867-8823

BRODERICK AND RURAL

Genereux Honey is a family-owned business located off Highway 15, east of Broderick, turn south on Bennet Road. Lee, Judy and Ruth will welcome you all to their beekeeping home base with demonstrations and explanations. A wealth of knowledge and experience from their work with bees and honey production to share with you!

leesbeesk@gmail.com
306-716-4511

NEW EXPERIENCES AWAIT

Honour Woodworks: Janet Gross is the creative spark behind this whimsical art form using old pianos. From taking the pianos apart to framing the imaginative pieces, Janet does it all. She also uses the ivory keys for tiny, scrimshaw scenes. Come see what she's been up to this year! Find her amazing home and studio 2.5 miles east of the Highway 219 junction on Highway 15.

home.wtbr@gmail.com
306-860-8901

Birds of Prairie take flight in the talented hands of Nicolette Vanderschaaf. She shares her deep love of the prairie and its wildlife through her rich watercolour paintings. Take the time to talk with her, explore the land, enjoy the view and have a glass of refreshment at Wolf Willow Winery. It's well worth the drive 15km north of Outlook or west from Highway 219. Follow the signs.

nicolettevanderschaaf@gmail.com
306-856-3308

Wolf Willow Winery A perfect stop on your ArtVenture to enjoy river views, sandy beaches and trails. Sample Saskatchewan craft beverages and food from the deck. Explore the orchards and grounds. Take a deep breath and watch the birds. Follow the signs, 15km north of Outlook or west from Highway 219 to this hidden gem on the banks of the South Saskatchewan River.

info@wolfwillowwinery.ca
306-867-8314

Susan Robertson Pottery: Susan shares her knowledge and demonstrates the techniques that she uses as the only production hand-building pottery studio in Saskatchewan. Explore the gift shop and take a memory home with you! Located at 1 Kylee Place in Broderick, visitors will be delighted by the production quality and bright smile of this engaging ceramic artist.

susan@srobertsonpottery.com
306-867-8011

ELBOW

Carmen Heinrichs Studio: Carmen incorporates her love of the natural world into her artistry through woodburning, sculpting, painting and colored pencil work. You can also talk with this naturalist about trails, activities and attractions in the Diefenbaker area. Be sure to stop in at 227 Minto Street in Elbow.

heinrichscarmen@gmail.com
306-854-4760

daisyanne Pottery Studio is a charming shop showcasing the creative handwork of Cindy Megaw. Her richly coloured plates, bowls and other items will bring warmth to your home. Cindy is looking forward to meeting you in her studio behind her home at 203 Aberdeen Street, just off Saskatchewan Avenue in Elbow.

cindymegaw@gmail.com
306-533-6803

Elbow Art Society is composed of 10 artists and artisans who share their work in the upstairs gallery at the Elbow Village Office. Working in a variety of mediums, including watercolour, acrylic, oil, and mixed media, they support and challenge each other to further their practice. Follow the signs to join them at 201 Saskatchewan Avenue in Elbow.

denises736@gmail.com
780-518-7259

The Front Porch Gallery/Tom Wilson Fine Art Photography: An internationally award-winning photographer, Tom captures local scenes, abstractions of light and birds, making the simple spectacular. June complements his work with her lovely macrame pieces. Visit them both in their vintage home at 109 Saskatchewan Street in Elbow.

jaevans109@gmail.com
306-533-6803

Bill Philpott Art captures scenes of farm and ranch life on the prairies, both past and present as he and his family have lived it. Bill's career has included notable achievements, including large gallery exhibitions. Although you would usually find Bill at his home in Central Butte, this year, you will have a chance to meet and talk with Bill in Elbow at the Harbor Golf Community Center at 1 Lakeside Road.

philpottbill8@gmail.com
639-923-7113

Living Books at the Library is a new venture this year, taking the lead from similar projects in Scandinavia. Visitors will have the opportunity to talk with interesting "books" that have been curated by Librarian, Maxine Hedin and Joan Soggie. There will be a list of the people available with experiences, talents and skills that they would enjoy talking about with you. You can have a chat with as many "Books" as you like. Elbow Palliser Library is located in the Harbor Golf Community Center at 1 Lakeside Road. The hours: 10am to 4pm both Saturday and Sunday.

elbow@palliserlibrary.ca
306-854-2220

Bounty Hall

Harbor Golf Community Centre

Outlook & District Heritage Museum

A sincere thanks to our 2024 Sponsors & Partners

JANET AKRE ART

bjakre@hotmail.com
306-867-7054

Outlook & District Heritage Museum & Gallery
Bounty Hall
Harbor Golf Community Centre

